Charming Affairs Given This Week

Five Gracious Hostesses Entertain With Elaborate Affairs This Week

Carrying on the tradition of charming entertaining and pleasant hospitality, Mrs. Ida Kaplan and Mrs. Dora Anish welcomed 30 or more guests in their attractive home on North Third street during the coffee hour.

Conversation over the coffee cups was stimulated by the presence of several out-of-town guests, Mrs. Martin Fuhler of Chicago, Mrs. Norman Mendelson of Portland, Ore., Mrs. Lily Schaff of New Orleans, Mrs. Louis Ilin of Chicago, and two brides of recent date, Mrs. Bernard Levi and Mrs. Seymour Solomon, who were named guests of honor on this charmingly informal occasion.

The coffee table in the dining room was the scene of a cornucopia, a symbol of plenty, spilling great clusters of purple Belgium grapes, bright yellow persimmons, crimson pomegranates, red-checked apples, pale yellow pears and golden oranges on bright green stems, over the handsome damask.

Coffee was poured from beautiful, antique silver, urns and delicacies ranging from assorted sandwiches to French and Danish pastries, were passed among the guests.

Another gracious hospitality of the week was the card party in the home of Mrs. David Kaplan with Mrs. David Snyder, of Bostrop, cohostess. The same visitors in the city and the two brides, who were named guests of honor at Mrs. Kaplan's home, were the inspiration for this delightful event bringing together seventy or more intimate friends.

The Kaplan home, spacious and elegant, is ideal for entertaining on a large and elaborate scale.

The lower floor, ensuite, was banked with beautiful autumn flowers. Tables for bridge and mah jong were grouped in the drawing room, library and solarium. Table ping-pong attracted others to the third floor, furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Kaplan as a recreation center for their two attractive daughters and their friends.

Following the card games, a supper course was served from a spacious buffet in the dining room. Trays laden with delectable viands and iced drinks were passed among the guests. Coffee was poured from silver urns.

The entire week is being devoted to charming courtesies extended these visitors in the city. Of particular prominence was the tea Wednesday afternoon, arranged by Mrs. Edgar Masur for her sister, Mrs. Bernard Levi, whose marriage in Lexington, Miss., was an interesting event of recent date.

A log fire burned cheerfully on the hearth and beautiful flowers in the autumn colors graced the living room of Mrs. D. C. Metcalf's country home when she entertained members of the Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick Class Monday afternoon.

One of the most comprehensive and constructive programs of the entire course was presented at this time as follows:

Devotional, Mrs. D. C. Metcalf; "West Monroe Civic League," Mrs. H. A. Gentry; "Tuberculosis Sanatorium," Mrs. R. A. Garrison; "Activities of the Ouachita Parish Health Unit," Mrs. H. F. Easterling; "Parent-Teacher Association," Mrs. Carl Metcalf; "American Red Cross," Mrs. D. C. Metcalf; "West Monroe Child Study Club," Mrs. C. K. Smith; "Crippled Children Clinic," Mrs. P. C. Mason.

The class will meet next Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. A. Garrison. The topic for discussion will be "Babies and Their Care." All members are urged to be present.

The following members attended the meeting last Monday: Mrs. P. C. Mason, Mrs. W. M. Snyder, Mrs. E. W. Stinson, Mrs. H. F. Easterling, Mrs. D. C. Metcalf, Mrs. R. A. Garrison, Mrs. C. K. Smith, Mrs. W. M. Norris, Jr., Mrs. Carl Metcalf, Mrs. H. A. Gentry, Mrs. L. L. Nichols, Mrs. W. L. Moore, and the instructor, Miss Frances E. Page.

Mrs. Alf Green was surprised in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Idus Whitman, by relatives who arranged a birthday party in honor of her sixty-third anniversary.

A feature of the occasion was the presentation of beautiful gifts to the celebrant.

A luncheon was served in the home of Mrs. J. C. Hengepeth honoring Miss Margie Faulk. Monday evening with Miss, Donna Wright, Christine Cooper, and Nell Black, actresses.

A treasure hunt was introduced by the hostesses with gifts leading the guests of honor to the beautiful gifts bestowed upon her.

The lighting of candles on the beautifully decorated birthday cake, dimmed the pleasures of the evening. Delicious refreshments were served to Miss Faulk and Misses Fay Leach, Elizabeth Bonner, Lela Rutledge, Caroline Brooks, Wilma Seeger, Marion Watts, Marie Self, Kitty Pickett, Christine Cooper, Nell Black, Donna Wright, and Mrs. J. C. Hengepeth.

THE ROAD TO SHANI LUN

by Rita Muller Hanson

YESTERDAY. On their way to the court of the Prince of Shani Lun, lovely Lynn Britton and her escort, Temu Darin, have arrived at the Mongolian monastery of Pallichao, from which a party issues to meet them. Frightened though she is by what amounts to her captivity, she still cannot hide her interest in Temu, a Mongolian with great experience in the Western world.

Chapter 15 Terrible Message

"THE trail forks at the foot of Pallichao," Temu said, "one branch going south to a mission on the Yellow River; the other continuing on west is our road to Shani Lun."

She looked at him with rising anger. "Our road! How sure you are of yourself?"

His eyes held hers. "I want you to be sure of yourself, too."

"I am sure you will pay for this."

"I'm not harming you," he said reasonably.

She threw up her hands in despair. "You're quarreling with me and spoiling the scenery." They both laughed. That, she felt, was the most maddening thing about her nature; her special weakness, a sense of the ridiculous that adulterated any particular power of rage she might possess.

Temu's mood had been restless all day. Now he settled up to Lynn's current and snatched and ground his teeth. Lynn eyed him doubtfully.

"He's a big, black, Baetian brute!" She stumbled a bit over the words.

"Speak it swiftly," Temu commanded.

"He's a big, black, Baetian brute!" She stumbled a bit over the words.

Today's Pattern

THE FLEET FALLS IN
PATTERN 8819

Now is the time for every good girl to come to the aid of her country, and there is no way she can make a better start than by showing her colors in this gay, nautical affair, as crisp as a Middy and refreshing as a sea-breeze.

Superbly smart and simple in design, with a choice of long or short sleeves, this pattern will make your fall campaign a marked success and repeat with honors next spring and summer. Just a few simple pieces, a few straight seams and, presto, your job is finished, whether in cotton or flannel, broadcloth or serge.

A detailed, step-by-step instruction chart guides your every step to insure success, and a list of patriotic trim hints shows you how to put with cheer. You'll find the guide with this trim model, the apple of every national eye, the pride and joy of the month's choice.

Pattern No. 8819 calls for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20 and 22. Size 14 requires 3 1/2 yds. of 44-inch fabric; 4 1/2 yds. for 46-inch.

WILLKIE PLANS F. D. R. ANSWER

Republican Candidate To Devote Half Hour To
The Task

(By Associated Press)
President Roosevelt's "gloves off" campaign speech at Philadelphia, accusing political foes of an intentional series of falsehoods, brought from Wendell L. Willkie the announcement that he would make a half-hour reply today to the charges.

Mr. Roosevelt, in his address last night, among other points singled out for contradiction what he called Republican claims that he was seeking to lead the nation into war. Then he used the word "fantasy" in denying that any secret compact or agreement existed, obligating the United States for warlike or other efforts on behalf of another power.

Willkie, heading westward again, packed Erie, Pa., as the place in which to deliver his broadcast reply, a selection which might be taken as underlining the significance of the major party attack to the Keystone State's 36 votes in the electoral college.

Broader denials of any thought of embroiling the country in war, Mr. Roosevelt used the occasion of his Philadelphia speech to declare that Republican campaigners had deliberately falsified about the progress of the people, labor and business under his administration. He cited figures which he said bore out his assertions of better conditions.

Willkie, addressing the Herald-Tribune forum in New York after the president's Philadelphia speech, said: "When I believe another man has falsified the record, I like to look him in the face and say so."

The Philadelphia speech, he contended, gave the impression that in the last months of 1939, and failed to mention that in 1939, the United States had spent $1.5 billion more on defense than in 1938.

As the campaign whipped along through the last few weeks, the degree of public interest was increased by Associated Press columns which charged that the president was breaking promises of a limited budget for 1940. Mr. Willkie said that the president had broken his promise to keep the budget under $10 billion.

MINISTERS FACE DRAFT CHARGES

Fifteen hours after the close of conscription registration, two ministers of Boston, Rev. Keith C. Kinsley (left), 25, and Rev. Harry H. Kruener (right), 24, were indicted by a federal grand jury on charges of knowingly failing and neglecting to register in accordance with the provisions of the selective service act. Both attempted to leave statements with registration officials, explaining their action. But registrars refused to accept them.

After the indictment, the two ministers were taken to the Boston House of Detention. They were held incommunicado for several days. Their families were notified of their whereabouts.

The indictment was returned by a federal grand jury in Boston. It charged that the two ministers had knowingly failed to register for the draft, despite the fact that they were both over 18 and under 30 years of age.

The two ministers were released from custody after a few days. They were ordered to appear in court for trial. The trial is expected to take place in the near future.

The case of the two ministers has caused a stir in the religious community. Some people believe that the ministers should be exempt from the draft because of their religious duties. Others believe that they should be held accountable like everyone else.

The case has also raised questions about the draft law. Some people believe that the law is too strict and that there should be more exemptions. Others believe that the law is necessary to ensure that enough men are available for military service.

The case of the two ministers is just one of many cases that have arisen from the draft law. It is expected that there will be more cases in the future.

The case of the two ministers has also led to a re-examination of the draft law. Some people believe that the law should be changed to allow for more exemptions. Others believe that the law should be made even stricter.

The case of the two ministers has also led to a discussion about the role of religion in society. Some people believe that religion should be a guiding force in all aspects of life. Others believe that religion should be a private matter.

The case of the two ministers has also led to a discussion about the rights of citizens. Some people believe that citizens have a right to freedom of religion. Others believe that citizens have a duty to obey the law.

The case of the two ministers has also led to a discussion about the importance of civic duty. Some people believe that it is important for citizens to participate in the democratic process. Others believe that it is not.

The case of the two ministers has also led to a discussion about the role of the government. Some people believe that the government should protect the rights of its citizens. Others believe that the government should ensure that the law is followed.

The case of the two ministers has also led to a discussion about the future of the country. Some people believe that the country is heading in the right direction. Others believe that it is not.

The case of the two ministers has also led to a discussion about the values of the American people. Some people believe that the American people are committed to the principles of freedom and democracy. Others believe that they are not.

The case of the two ministers has also led to a discussion about the role of the media. Some people believe that the media should provide accurate and unbiased information. Others believe that the media should be used to promote a particular agenda.

SEES ROMANCES AT BRIDGE PLAY

Finds Tournaments Ideal Places To Develop
Cupid's Art

By Ray Blosser
CLEVELAND, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Take it from the man who goes to all the big tournaments without competing in any—the bridge table is an ideal place to discover the right wife or husband.

Russell J. Baldwin has seen many romances develop amid double fines and grand slams, doubled and vulnerable. As tournament director for the American Contract Bridge League, he is the game's No. 1 lookout.

"In spite of one conspicuous exception, there are numerous successful bridge romances every year between players who meet at tournaments," observes the 42-year-old Clevelander.

"If a person has disagreeable traits, they're bound to show up at bridge. The good ones turn up, too. Another thing in favor of bridge romances is that the partners always have a community of interest."

"I know that husbands and wives differ about contract, but many play together in mixed pair events, where the competition isn't so serious as the open games. I think any two people must do a certain amount of arguing, anyhow, and that's a pretty harmless way to blow off steam."

Baldwin was one of three partners in an obscure Cleveland stove company when he first did some tournament scoring a dozen years ago. In the 1922 depression there wasn't enough business to keep all three busy, so he turned to directing tournaments.

Now Baldwin is so busy that he hasn't been able to get home for a weekend all year. One week he will be in New York, the next in Chicago or Minneapolis. Many times his wife goes along to do a little bridge playing. His task is to rule on player complaints, and decide with tact and the involved scoring.

Contract bridge as it stands today, Baldwin calculates, seems to be pretty popular. Several changes have been proposed, but they haven't taken hold.

"As a result, bridge is pretty well standardized. Bidding is almost universally the same and the 'freak' systems have been thrown out. I think it is helping the game."

"There used to be a sort of distrust between players in different sections. Now they talk the same language, making it possible for one from St. Louis to enter the National and feel quite at home."

CHANGING PLANT

OFFICIAL KILLED

FRANKLIN, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Stanislaus F. Keller, 67, official of the Bay Chemical plant at Weeks Island, La., was killed instantly at 5:30 a. m. today on Highway 90 near Baldwin, La., when the car in which he was riding alone is reported to have struck the rear end of a tractor truck.

Investigating officers from Franklin, stated that Keller apparently did not see the heavy truck because of a dense fog which enshrouded this section this morning.

The deceased is survived by his widow and four daughters.

Between 40 and 50 per cent of all turned tires are caused by damage resulting from impacts against curbs, chuck holes, and driving over rocks and other large objects in the road.

GIVEN 3 YEARS UNDER NEW ACT

Novelty Peddler First In U. S. Jailed Under
Draft Measure

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 24.—(AP)—The three-year prison sentence given Wednesday to Michael John Caffie, 29, for failing to register under the selective service act, was believed to be the first imposed in the country.

Caffie, a novelty peddler, told federal agents he blamed the war on "peddlers, capitalists and news-papers," and that "there is nothing I have in the United States worth defending."

Caffie pleaded guilty and then spoke at length before the court on his ideas of liberty.

"The preamble of the constitution says that liberty is an inalienable right which can't be taken away," Caffie asserted.

Judge Adrian Cailloet asked: "If you were in Germany, do you think you would have the liberty to out."

40-HOUR WEEK NOW EFFECTIVE

Time And A Half For Over-time Compulsory Under Measure

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(AP)—The 40-hour work week became the legal standard for the nation's interstate industry today, and from now on employees covered by the wage-hour law will be entitled to time and a half pay for more than 40 hours work.

The 40-hour standard prescribed by the act became effective at midnight, replacing the 42-hour work week inaugurated a year ago.

Colonel Philip B. Fleming, wage-hour administrator, said the agency was aiming now at perfecting a system of routine annual inspections of all business establishments subject to the law.

The 40-hour standard is a minimum wage, one of the major goals of the wage-hour law, will not be required in all industries until 1941, but by the time of industry's compliance, the agency has already established minimum rates running up to 44 cents in many industries. The minimum rate now is 35 cents.

Administrative Fleming handled the beginning of the 40-hour week Wednesday night, and he is now working to develop that of the new standard and to perfect the machinery of enforcement of the law.

JAPANESE END DEAL WITH U. S.

New Sign Of Tension Seen In Alteration Of Pact Relations

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(AP)—The Japanese government today announced that it had decided to end the deal with the United States which had been in effect since 1911.

The deal, known as the "Hague Convention," had provided for the exchange of goods and services between the two countries.

Officials here said the deal had been in effect since 1911, and that it had been a source of tension between the two countries.

TRAINING COSTS $400 PER SOLDIER

Uncle Sam Will Endeavor To Keep Draftees Happy During Year

EDITOR'S NOTE: There's an old saying that an army is no better than the man in the street. With that truth in mind, the United States has made extensive plans to keep the men going into the huge new army happy and strong in spirit. The methods are related in the following story, the fourth of a series of six telling how the army will be trained and drilled with other phases of defense program. Practice battle will start across the nation.

By W. B. Ragsdale
WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(AP)—The war department figures it will cost $400 to house each one of its soldiers and provide the buildings and grounds needed to train him and keep him happy.

That is the figure to which the war department has broken down. It covers the per man cost of not just barracks, but of a station hospital, mess hall, recreation buildings and grounds, administration buildings, warehouses, laundries, refrigerating plants, roads, and, of course, grading a drill field.

It has nothing to do with food. William S. Knudsen of the national defense commission said yesterday that men in the service eat about the same as they do at home except that if a man is in the army he drinks more beer and if he is in the navy he drinks more coffee.

But in these days, army officers recognize that it takes more to build an army than just feeding men and training them. They know that a man who is happy and strong in spirit is a man who is a better soldier.

And the war department wants to know that not only knows how to handle arms, but has the spirit to handle them well, a spirit that flows from good health and the conviction that it has something worth fighting for.

General George C. Marshall, the chief of staff, put it this way: "The war department undertakes full responsibility for the welfare of the soldier and his family. It is essential that the soldier be made to feel that the war department is his home."

The war department's plan is an extensive one, with many ramifications. It covers the entire life of the soldier, from the moment he is drafted until the moment he is discharged.

Provision is made for medical care, for the establishment of service clubs and motion picture theaters. Histories and libraries are provided for in the division camps.

This matter is vital to morale. It is the war department's policy to make the soldier feel that he is a part of a great organization, and that he is being taken care of in every way possible.

That policy will be an example of the war department's policy to make the soldier feel that he is a part of a great organization, and that he is being taken care of in every way possible.

The election was held in the gymnasium of the college, and the students voted for the new councilmen.

U. S. SITTING PRETTY ON FOOD SITUATION

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 24.—(AP)—If war should come to the United States this country would be "sitting pretty" on the food situation, said Gary G. Frary, South Dakota state chemist here Wednesday.

In contrast to 1915-16 there is an abundance of supplies said Frary, who addressed the association of food and drug officials of the United States.

"We have large surpluses of grain," he pointed out. "For instance, three-year-old corn is still stored in elevators in the mid-west. And present crops are very good and will increase these stores."

In addition, he added, the United States has ample acreage for increasing production if necessary.

GOOD BACKS DIME A DOZEN ON DIXIE WARFRONT

SOUTHERN STARS BID FOR PLACES ON NO. 1 TEAM

Potential All-Americans Found Galore In This Section

By Romney Wheeler
ATLANTA, Oct. 24. — (AP) — Good backs are a dime a dozen this year in Dixie.

When the annual all-America assignments are passed out in December, the top ranking backs will have to share with the South or beat out some of the best performers in the nation.

Last year Banks McFadden of Clemson won the spotlight with Iowa's Niles Kinnick, Michigan's Tom Harmon and the Texas Aggie's Jarrin Jarrin. Kimbrough.

This year, with Harmon and Kimbrough back at their old stands, the South has nearly a dozen nominees for all-America, and more than a score of standout half-carriers and blockers who are fighting for places on the annual all-Southern and all-Southeastern conference eleven.

Take your pick of potential all-Americans. There is Bill Dudley of Virginia, Tuffy Timmons of Clemson, Tony Galloway of Wake Forest, Alabama's triple-threat Jimmy Neilson, Tennessee's multi-talented tailbacks Bob Fox and little Johnny Butler, Mississippi's "H-boss" June Hovous and Merle Hayes, high-scoring Harvey (Boots) Johnson of Mississippi State, and Georgia Tech's passing, punting and running ace, 130-pound Johnny Bosch.

Possibly out of the all-America running, but nevertheless top-flighters are fleet Moffat Storer, Wes McAffee and Jay Davis of Duke, John Polanski of Wake Forest, Pepper Martin of Furman, and Jim Lalane of North Carolina.

Auburn's grid prestige has been kept near the top from week to week by two great performers, line-pounding Rufus Deal and a high-scoring sophomore, Bill Yearout. Both have teamed with last season's ace, Dynamite Dick McGowan, to power Auburn's drive.

Mississippi State, undefeated but tied by Auburn, has its blue chips on two ranking halfbacks, Johnson and Sonny Bruce. Kentucky, another undefeated but once-tied power, can contribute four star backs—high-scoring Noah Mullins, Dave Zoeller, Charlie Ishmael and Ernie Allen.

Georgia's triple threat Frankie Sinkwich, billed as the South's sophomore sensation of the year, turned out to be just another high-class back when the Bulldogs hit rough going. He is challenged by two other Georgia stars, aerial artists Jim Todd and Heyward Allen.

Thrilled-defeated but still powerful Tulane has a half-dozen good backs, paced by Fred Cassberry, Bob Glax and Fred Gloden. Vanderbilt's opponents have been harassed constantly by Banks Bushmaier, while Louisiana State rates Adair Dodson, brother of Mississippi's Les Dodson, as one of the league's best.

Among the blocking backs, Tulane's Bobby Grush, Tennessee's Ike Piel and Wake Forest's Jimmy Ringgold have been standouts.

VANDY GRIDDER FINED FOR SPEEDING IN CAR

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 24. — (AP) — "He was doing 65 miles an hour," a state highway patrolman told Judge John L. Draper Wednesday as he brought Vanderbilt's swift halfback Banks Bushmaier into several seasons court on a charge of speeding.

"Was he running or driving a car," asked the judge, who had seen Bushmaier hurry on the football field.

Assured Bushmaier was driving a car, Judge Draper warned "you'll have to save your fast traveling for the gridiron," and fined the Little Rock, Ark., halfback $5 and costs.

DOG PROVES HERO IN FUND CAMPAIGN

MELBOURNE — (AP) — A little dog named Conty Bright Hero did a part during Australia's Comforts Fund day, allowing itself to be patted 2,500 times at a penny a pat.

Of all accidental and careless causes of premature tire failures, curbs and body bruises—generally ignored by the average motorists—are the most dangerous and the most frequent.

Steedel was high pun smasher for the drug five with 191 in a single game and 428 for the series. Schumaker led the Butlers with 159 and 480, respectively.

WRESTLING CARD PICKED BY FANS

Kallio To Grapple Ring-siders' Choice On Weekly Program

Monroe wrestling fans will have a voice in naming the weekly grappling card at the Monroe arena tonight, when they vote on one of three men to tangle with the local promoter and former middleweight champion, Gus Kallio.

The three wrestlers will be Yaqul Joe, the Sonora Indian, Buck Davidson, and Chief Thunderbolt, a Sioux Indian from Iowa.

The fans will decide which one of these three is to tangle with Kallio and whether it will be a one-round, round-final match or a 90-minute main event.

Both Davidson and the Sonora Indian are well known to the local fans, as they have appeared in the local ring several times in the last few months.

The Sioux Indian chief, however, is a newcomer to the local mat and might get the chance at Kallio for no other reason. He has compiled a fine record in the Midwest and other parts of the south. His favorite hold is a pinning hammerlock. He is a dangerous headlock and other arm and leg hold.

Davidson, Terre Haute, Ind., grappler, is an all-around stylist and depends a lot upon his ability to slip from his opponent's holds. He is a dangerous headlock and other arm and leg hold.

Yaqul Joe is an expert of the Indian wrestling style. He is a dangerous headlock and other arm and leg hold.

After the wrestler has been chosen to tangle with Kallio, the other two will tangle with each other. The winner of the match will tangle with Kallio in the main event.

Kallio, the former middleweight champion, held the title for nearly 11 years. He is a dangerous headlock and other arm and leg hold.

SPORTS MIRROR

Yakovlev, a Russian, and Jim Duggan, a Canadian, are the two main attractions in the boxing card at the Monroe arena tonight. The card will also feature a bout between two local fighters.

OVER THE BOUNDING MANE

Rockne's Coach Gives True Story Of First Army Tilt

Jess Harper Says Notre Dame Led At End Of Half On Two Passes

By Harold Chassen

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Jess Harper, who coached the Notre Dame football team, today gave the true story of the first Army-Notre Dame game, which was played at Notre Dame, Sept. 1, 1914.

During the final two periods, Notre played 15 of 20 and completed every pass.

Rockne is the greatest player I have ever seen. He was a masterful player of the speed of his passing, throwing the ball so his man could take it on the dead run with great accuracy and speed or a change of pace.

Harper, who was Walter Eckersall's

assistant at the University of Chicago in 1914, demonstrated how Rockne first taught passing, again, that

Rockne said that the future coach of football later became more proficient and orthodox in his teaching.

"Rockne really was a good end. He learned to catch while out for track and played his 10 pounds weight as a line backer.

Harper said he was virtually wrecked

by his team's slight chance of beating the favored Army, which he learned in South Bend, one of his star players was a center back.

"I was not at all right," he quoted

Rockne as saying, "I was not at all right."

ARCADIA HIGH PLAYS DELHI FRIDAY NIGHT

ARCADIA, Oct. 24.—(Special)—Arcadia will play Delhi High school Friday night in Arcadia for the third home game of the season according to Jimmy Mize, Arcadia coach.

This will be Arcadia's seventh game of the season and the third one to be played at home. Of the six games played on the schedule thus far, Arcadia has won five and lost one. Arcadia lost its first game of the season last Friday afternoon when they went down to the Saepta team by a score of 13 to 6.

This is the first time in a number of years that Arcadia has met Delhi in gridiron combat and the game has caused a great deal of local and sectional interest. A large crowd is expected to witness the contest. A ticket selling contest is being conducted in the local school for the Delhi game.

The student body of the school is in the midst of a campaign to elect a homecoming queen for two weeks hence. Nominations have been made and balloting is proceeding slowly. The tentative date for homecoming for Arcadia has been placed on November 2, the date Arcadia plays Plain Dealing. The contest for the election of the queen ends next Thursday afternoon at five o'clock. Much interest is being taken in this contest.

Arcadia will have its full team in the field except a few regulars hurt in the Saepta game last Friday afternoon.

After the game with Delhi, Arcadia has three more games left on the 1940 schedule. They are Haughton High school, November 1, Plain Dealing, November 5, and Jonesboro, November 10. The Haughton and Plain Dealing games are to be home games. Jonesboro will be played there.

OLE MISS' JUNIE HOVIOUS ROMPS 96 YARDS

Junie Hovious, Mississippi back, took a Georgia punt on his four at Athens, Ga., and spun into the clear for a 96-yard touchdown gallop. He tucked up so many tacklers he was able to test leisurely the last 20 yards. Here Popp (42) and Hares (44) lead the interference. Tommy Watt (next to Hares), Georgia center, tries to get in for the tackle. Ole Miss won 24-14.

PRISONER IS GIVEN 3 TO 15 YEARS

Virgil E. Carter Is Sentenced in Killing Of John Gibson

RAYVILLE, Oct. 24.—(Special)—Virgil E. Carter, Delhi barber, who last Tuesday was convicted of manslaughter in district court where he was on trial for the murder of John L. Gibson, was sentenced Wednesday to not less than five nor more than 15 years in the state penitentiary by Judge Carey J. Ellis.

Carter has 10 days to make the appeal. He is being held in the Rayville jail.

A jury of seven farmers, two merchants, a nightwatchman, clerk, and a barber, returned the verdict of manslaughter last Wednesday after deliberating two hours and 45 minutes.

The state's case depended upon the testimony of Charles Clarence King, who was walking across the main street of Delhi with Gibson April 30, the time of the shooting. His testimony was refuted by the defense, who stated that he was Gibson's friend, and chummed with him quite a bit.

Fifteen persons were sentenced by Judge Ellis of the district court here (Tuesday), and cases of two were continued on motion of counsel.

Louis Daniels, negro, charged with larceny entered plea of guilty and a sentence of 12 to 24 years as a third offender.

L. E. Freeman, R. A. Getchell and Mack Alexander, charged jointly with robbery on two counts, entered plea of guilty and were sentenced to serve six years each on the first count and two years additionally on the second count.

M. T. Salley charged with the trio entered plea of not guilty.

Steve Hawkins, negro, charged with robbery and wounding with intent to murder, entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to serve three to nine years.

W. J. McMullen, charged on two counts with larceny of pipe, entered plea of guilty and was sentenced to serve one year on each count.

Lonto Robinson, negro, charged with shooting into a residence entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to serve a term of two to six years.

Ollie Newsum, negro, charged with wounding short of mayhem, entered plea of guilty and was sentenced to serve one year.

Fred Elter, negro, charged with larceny of a cow, was sentenced to serve eight months, like Ragdale, negro, on a reduced charge of larceny of a shotgun, entered plea of guilty and was sentenced to serve six months. Steve Armstrong, James Nichols and Jesse Collins, negroes, charged with larceny of property valued at $15 were each sentenced to serve six months.

Roosevelt Collins, negro, charged with assault and battery was sentenced to serve 90 days.

C. M. Reeves, white, charged with driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, entered plea of guilty and was sentenced to pay fine of $100 or serve four months.

Billie D. Cooper, charged with robbery, no action taken by the court and case continued on motion of counsel.
